MADOFF VICTIMS CYNTHIA CRANE, BARBARA BONFIGLI MEET

June 8, 2009 –

TWO victims of swindler Bernie Madoff met for the first time last week. During Barry Z's show on CBS Digital radio, cabaret singer Cynthia Crane said that after Madoff ripped her off, she had to put her 19th-century Greenwich Village townhouse on the market. Her comment shocked fellow guest, author of the new fictional memoir,

Café Tempest: Adventures on a Small Greek Island (Tell Me Press) Barbara Bonfigli, who said, “One day I found out that my first book was being published and two days later that I’d lost all my money” to the Ponzi scammer. The host responded, “Two betrayed Madoff investors [on the same show]. What are the chances of this?”
